Can you hear me?

Allen Breiner Sr., secretary/treasurer; Allen Breiner Jr., president, and Jason Milyo, all members of the Tamaqua Wireless Association, operate a ham radio at Weicker's Grove in Locust Valley this past weekend during the annual Field Day exercise. Ham radio operators around the world participate in Field Day as an emergerncy communications training exercise. During the 24-hour exercise, the TWA made contact with operators from all around the United States, Cuba, Ontario and Tahiti.
